Mazda Announces Recruitment Plan for Fiscal Year Ending March 2020

HIROSHIMA, Japan – Mazda Motor Corporation has announced its graduate recruitment plan to fill engineering and administrative positions for the fiscal year ending (FYE) March 2020.

“Aiming to help create a sustainable future for cars, the earth and society, Mazda hopes to enrich people’s lives with an experience of car ownership that celebrates driving and create a special bond with our customers,” said Kazuhisa Yoshida, Executive Officer and General Manager of Mazda’s Human Resource Office. “The company is united in its efforts toward these goals without regard for the traditional boundaries between departments. We are looking for passionate team players who refuse to be restrained by conventional ideas, never stop challenging and work with integrity and a focus on the customer’s point of view.”

Mazda will continue to systematically secure new talent to drive the company’s future growth.
